2011-2012 BOARDS AND AGENCIES OF THE CONFERENCE

April 15, 2011

General Rules of the Overall Structure

Diversity and Inclusivity: In accordance with the 2004 Journal of the Annual Conference of the Kansas East Conference (page 308, item 3): "The Committee (on Nominations) shall nominate persons to reflect the diversity of the conference and inclusivity with regard to districts, church size, gender, race, age, clergy/lay and persons with challenging and/or limiting conditions."

As a result of the above, this recommendation is assumed in membership of all committees and will not be listed specifically under committee membership of each committee.

Council on Youth Ministry: This council has the prerogative of appointing a Youth Rep to serve on all conference boards and committees unless expressly forbidden in the Book of Discipline or Conference rules.

Staff Relationship to Committees: The Bishop, Superintendents, Assistant to the Bishop/Treasurer, and Director of Clergy and Congregational Excellence will determine staff representation to all boards and committees.

Chairpersons and Officers: Chairpersons are named by the Conference Committee on Nominations except when the Book of Discipline gives the committee that responsibility. In all cases, committees are free to elect additional officers as they deem necessary.

Legend: + = Nominating recommends
* = Group elects own officers
= Chosen by Bishop

Conference Lay Leader: The Conference Lay leader may designate an associate conference lay leader to serve in any position calling for the lay leader.

General Board or Agency Member: Whenever the conference has a person serving on a General Board or Agency that person shall be ex officio on the corresponding Conference Board or Agency.

Council on Finance & Administration: The Council may name a non-voting representative to each main sub-committee of the Leadership Team.

Membership: Nominated by the Committee on Nominations, the committee's membership shall number at least seven, but no more than 17. One-fifth of the committee's membership shall be appointed by the bishop. In addition to the lay and clergy members of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy, who shall be ex officio members with vote, it is recommended that the committee consist of the following: one-third laywomen, one-third laymen, and one-third clergypersons, provided that one layperson shall be the conference lay leader. All lay members shall be professing members of local churches. Special attention shall be given to the inclusion of racial and ethnic persons, youth (¶256.3), young adults, older adults, and people with disabilities. No member of the staff of the annual conference or any of its agencies, nor an immediate family member of such staff, shall serve as a member of the committee, except that a member of the Jurisdictional Committee on Episcopacy or the conference lay leader shall not be disqualified from membership as a result of this provision. The committee elects the chairperson from the membership at an organizational meeting at the beginning of a quadrennium.

b. COUNCIL ON YOUTH MINISTRY (¶649) [or other equivalent structure]

Membership: The council will consist of six youth from each district, the youth ministry coordinators of each district (chosen by districts), adult co-convener for each event sponsored by the ministry area (named by the ministry area), one at-large member, the Conference Council on Youth Ministry coordinator (named by the Committee on Nominations and elected by the Annual Conference), and the conference director of student ministries. No more than one-third of the membership of the council shall be adults, one of whom may be the conference lay leader or his or her representative. It is recommended that the council be composed of 50 percent racial and ethnic group members. (It is suggested that members at large may be added toward achieving fifty-fifty ethnic and white membership in a manner to be determined by the Conference Council on Youth Ministry.) Where ethnic or language conferences overlap non-ethnic conferences, provision shall be made for the inclusion of members of the ethnic or language conferences and vice-versa. Those serving on the Conference Council on Youth Ministry or equivalent structure shall be baptized or professing members of The United Methodist Church.*

c. COUNCIL ON YOUNG ADULT MINISTRY (¶650) [or other equivalent structure]

Membership: The membership of the council shall be a chairperson and young adults (as defined by the annual conference which Kansas East Conference considers to be ages 19 to 30). It is recommended there be one young adult elected by each district of the conference selected by the District Council on Ministries (or equivalent group). There may also be six to 10 members at large nominated by the conference Committee on Nominations. It is strongly recommended that the membership of the council include racial and ethnic persons, as well as persons of both genders to ensure inclusiveness. Those serving on the Conference Council on Young Adult Ministry shall be members of The United Methodist Church. At least one-half of the members shall be laypersons who are professing members of The United Methodist Church. Members should represent the diversity of young adults in the general population, including college students, working persons, single, and married.
